

Human Rights Policy

Nufarm Limited (Company or Nufarm)
ACN 091 323 312

Approved by the Board on 13 Nov 2024.

Human Rights Policy

1. Purpose

Human rights are the basic political, civil, economic, labour, social and cultural rights, and freedoms to which all people are entitled, without discrimination¹ (Human Rights).

This policy is the Nufarm Group's (Nufarm) commitment to the protection and advancement of Human Rights with respect to the operations of our business. This policy is supplementary to Nufarm's Code of Conduct and Speak Up Policy, which read together reinforce Nufarm's culture and commitment to lawful and ethical behaviour.

2. Who this policy applies to

This policy relates to Nufarm Limited (Company) and its subsidiaries (together, Nufarm) and applies to all its employees, officers, (including casual and temporary workers), directors, contractors, distributors and suppliers, as specified.

3. Commitment

Nufarm is committed to providing a work environment where Human Rights are respected and upheld. We expect the same commitment from all parties that we do business with.

As a company we are committed to:

- Operating in a manner consistent with the United Nations (UN) Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights (UNGPs)
- Complying with the applicable laws and regulations of the countries in which we operate
- Respecting internationally recognised human rights as set out in the International Bill of Human Rights

We believe that respecting Human Rights in all that we do is integral to the sustainability and success of our business because employees and communities who act with integrity contribute to a more stable and profitable business.

3.1. Safety and Security

The safety of our employees is Nufarm's first priority, and we are working to a goal of zero harm. Nufarm's Health, Safety and Environment policy is available on our corporate website.

Harassment, violence, or the threat of violence is not tolerated in our work environment.

¹ Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights.

3.2. Freedom of Association and Collective Bargaining

Nufarm recognises and respects employee's rights and freedom to join or not to join organisations of their own choosing, to associate freely and bargain collectively. No employee shall be subject to dismissal, discrimination, harassment, intimidation, or retaliation due to their membership in a lawful workers' association or union.

Where the right to freedom of association and collective bargaining is restricted by law, Nufarm shall facilitate open communication and direct engagement between workers and management.

3.3. Diversity and Inclusion

We are committed to developing and maintaining a diverse and inclusive workplace where every employee is treated fairly and with respect and has the opportunity to realise their full potential and contribute to Nufarm's success.

For more information, please refer to our Diversity and Inclusion Policy on our corporate website.

3.4. Flexible Working Arrangements

We are committed to offering flexible working arrangements to our employees and offer a range of flexible working options to enable our employees to be their best. We acknowledge the role that flexible work arrangements play in creating a more diverse and engaged workforce.

3.5. Equal Opportunity

Nufarm will take reasonable measures to ensure equal opportunities for all employees.

Employment related decisions, including recruitment, promotion, training, and development, compensation, disciplinary and termination of employment will be based on merit (work performance, qualifications, capability, knowledge, and experience) and business considerations. Decisions based on attributes unrelated to job performance, including but not limited to race, gender, sexuality or family responsibilities will not be tolerated.

Nufarm acts in accordance with local legislation and cultural considerations that may impact workplace decisions and actions.

3.6. Modern Slavery

Modern slavery can take many forms such as child labour, forced labour, servitude, slavery, human trafficking, and bonded or indentured labour. Nufarm recognises that depriving another individual of their liberty is a violation of the individual's fundamental human rights and has adopted a zero-tolerance approach to the practice of modern slavery.

Nufarm commits to:

- Employing workers who have freely given their consent to employment, who are of a legal age and status to work
- To undertake business with suppliers and contractors who share this goal

4. Actions to enforce our commitment

Nufarm is committed to ensuring it acts in accordance with upholding Human Rights and the requirements of this Policy, by providing a clear directive to its suppliers and following up with globally recognised assessments.

Nufarm's selection and evaluation process of its suppliers is governed by a Global Procurement Supplier Code of Conduct (Supplier Code), which is supported by a Corporate Social Responsibility assessment tool provided by an independent third party.

The Supplier Code provides guidance to our suppliers about our expectations regarding ethical and responsible behaviour when conducting business together, including adherence to Human Rights.

Nufarm engages an independent third party to undertake corporate social responsibility ratings of its suppliers, in accordance with a risk priority assessment by Nufarm. This includes an assessment of human rights adherence.

Nufarm also conducts internal reviews on human rights adherence.

5. Training and communication

Our employees will be educated in Nufarm's expectations of them under this policy. This policy shall be published on both our corporate internet site and internal intranet site, the Vine.

6. Raising a concern

Nufarm's Speak Up Policy sets out the way People can confidently and if they wish, anonymously, report misconduct, wrongdoing, or improper conduct.

Employees may also access the Integrity Helpline online or over the phone using the phone number on the website link.

7. Responsibilities

The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for reporting on human rights performance in the annual reports.

The Audit and Risk Committee of the Nufarm Board shall review the effectiveness of this policy periodically.

The Group Executive – People and Performance is responsible for the timely communication, training and deployment of this policy.

It is the responsibility of all senior managers to ensure the requirements of this policy are implemented within their teams.

All employees are required to practice and promote the values of this policy and take reasonable measures to prevent the exploitation of other people.

8. Policy compliance

- a) The Group General Counsel and Company Secretary must report to the Audit and Risk Committee on any actions prohibited by this policy involving:
 - i) a material breach of this policy by officers or any member of the Nufarm Leadership Team (NLT),
 - ii) a breach of this policy by any officer or employee that is a criminal act, or
 - iii) repeated breaches of this policy that likely establishes a systemic issue,(each a Material Breach).
- b) Actions prohibited by this policy involving any other person or non-criminal incident, must be reported to the reporting person's manager and the Group General Counsel and Company Secretary.
- c) After receiving a report of an alleged prohibited action, the relevant manager and Group General Counsel and Company Secretary or the Audit and Risk Committee (as applicable) must consider the most appropriate policy and process that may apply to the alleged prohibited action and promptly take all appropriate actions necessary to investigate in accordance with the appropriate policy.
- d) All individuals are expected to cooperate in any internal investigation of an alleged prohibited action.
- e) If, after investigating a report of an alleged Material Breach, the Audit and Risk Committee determines that a Material Breach has occurred, the Audit and Risk Committee will report such determination to the Board.
- f) On receipt of a determination that there has been a breach of this Code (whether Material or not), the relevant manager and Group General Counsel and Company Secretary together with the regional People & Performance Leads or Group Executive, People and Performance will take such preventative or disciplinary action as they deem appropriate, including, but not limited to, termination of contract for non-employees, reassignment, demotion, or other disciplinary action including dismissal of employees
- g) Any person being investigated for breach of this policy will be dealt with fairly and in accordance with local Disciplinary and Grievance Policies.
- h) Nufarm does not tolerate acts of retaliation or victimisation, including demotion, dismissal, discipline, discrimination, harassment, suspension or threats, of or against any individual who makes a good faith report of known or suspected violations of this policy. This is consistent with Nufarm's Speak Up Policy - Nufarm is committed to the protection of people who Speak Up against action taken in reprisal for making reports.

9. Policy review

This policy will be periodically reviewed and updated as required.
